Getting started with Skype

Make calls and video calls with Skype on your TV.

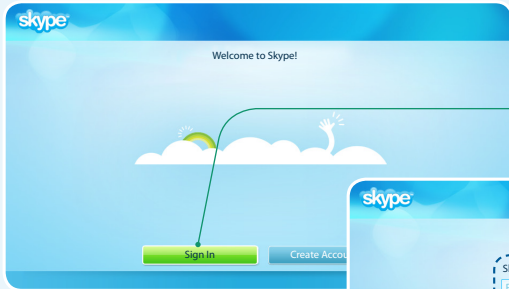

Make possible by SMART HUB - bringing useful and entertaining features directly from the web to your TV.

NOTE

- Connect your SAMSUNG webcam directly to the TV, not through a USB hub.
- If the webcam isn't working properly, turn the TV off then on again, and relaunch Skype.
- Skype is disabled when the TV is turned off.
- Voice quality may be affected in a noisy environment.
- Using a wireless network can degrade call quality.
- Use of the Skype software is subject to the Skype End User License Agreement \(skype.com/legal/eula\), Skype Terms of Service \(skype.com/legal/tos\) and the Skype Privacy Policy \(skype.com/legal/privacy/general\).
- If Skype is deleted, saved information (History and Options) is deleted.
- For help using Skype, visit skype.com
- You need to configure your network before using Skype on your TV. See instructions in this manual.
- The ring bell rings when someone calls to you while you watch the TV or operate the Skype application.
- To use Skype you need the TV camera. Please buy the TV camera of the SAMSUNG if you don't have the TV a built-in camera.
- TV camera launched in 2010 and the SAMSUNG TV launched in 2012 are incompatible.
- Only Skype version 4.2 or greater is supported on Windows-based PCs.
- Only Skype version 5.0 or greater is supported on Macintosh PCs.
- Not supported on Linux-based PCs.
